Reprinted

Editor The Star: In re-copying a lot of my favorite recipes for a new file I am reminded again that we should share some of the best things we have learned from experience with the younger generation.

I have in my possession a wonderful recipe that I cut out of a Hope Star many years ago: 1930 or farther back. I have used this small cookie recipe untold numbers of times and have never had a failure. I am just hoping that you would like to reprint it. I tried a recipe from the front page of your paper about a year and a half ago, the Chocolate Cake, and it was a gem, too, so you see, I remember you do print good recipes.

Thank you also for the Organic Gardening and Farming article not long ago. I have been a reader of that magazine almost from its first issue.

Please excuse my bum typing as I am only a beginner.

I don't ask for a return of this recipe as I surely have made a copy.

Thanks for a wonderful paper, the Hope Star. Sincerely yours,
ESTHER NELSON

Here is a reprint of the recipe in question:

Rolls Oat Butter Crisps

For that extra-special occasion when you want to serve tiny cookies as a delicious decoration to top off a good dessert, serve Butter Crisps. They are very colorful when ornamented with a candied cherry, colored sugar, or a half nutmeat.

The following ingredients are necessary:

1/2 cupful of butter, 1/2 cupful of sugar, 1 egg, 3/4 cupful of sifted pastry flour, 1/2 teaspoonful of vanilla, 1/2 cupful of Quaker rolled oats.

Cream the butter thoroughly, add the sugar gradually. Add the unbeaten egg and mix thoroughly. Add the sifted flour, the Quaker oats and the vanilla. When well combined, drop from a teaspoon on to a greased baking pan. Flatten slightly with a spatula dipped in cold water. Bake in a slow oven—300 degrees Fahr.—for about 35 minutes.

More VEE Clinics Are Scheduled

A series of clinics have been set up for vaccination of horses, mules, etc. against Venezuelan Equine Encephalomyelitis (VEE) on Sunday, August 1, said County Extension Agent, Calvin J. Caldwell. Dr. Herbert Rogers will administer the vaccine. All horse owners are asked to select the stop most convenient to them. It will not be necessary to notify our office for this series of clinics, Mr. Caldwell said. The first stop will be held at the Early McIver farm on Old Highway 67 beginning at 9:30 a.m. Sunday. Stops will be made in order as follows:

1. Early McIver farm (Old Highway 67)
2. Guernsey School
3. Dee Coffee farm
4. Sam Hendricks farm
5. Fulton (Front of post office)
6. Jim Voss farm
7. McNab (Front of post office)
8. J. K. Porter farm
9. Wilburn W. Hughes farm
10. Crit Caldwell farm
11. Columbus (Between stores)
12. J. A. Gunter farm
13. Crossroads
14. Lester Fincher farm
15. Hoods Store No. 4 Hwy.
16. Washington near grade school
17. Ozan
18. Goodlett's Gin lot
19. Dr. Jack Williams (Yancy)
20. N. Bingen Community Center
21. Rose Mary Mobbs farm
22. Bingen School

Clinics will be held in other parts of the County on alternate days beginning with Tuesday, August 3. Watch for schedules in this paper. If you have questions about the VEE vaccination, you may reach us by telephone number 777-5771, the County Extension Agent said.

U.S. Action Withheld in Rail Strike

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House scheduled new negotiations today between the United Transportation Union and carriers in an attempt to settle a dispute that has idled four railroads.

White House press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said the talks are the Nixon administration's continuing "attempts to aid the parties in reaching a voluntary agreement."

Assistant Secretary of Labor W. J. Usery, acting on another administration directive, met in Cleveland with UTU President Charles Luna Wednesday night. A union spokesman said no progress was made in the meeting.

Secretary of Labor James D. Hodgson told Congress the administration wants a voluntary settlement. "Compulsory solutions are a last resort," he told a House Commerce subcommittee Wednesday.

His statements were backed up at the White House, where Ziegler said no request for emergency legislation would be made unless economic effects of the strike become too great.

The union has added three more lines to the list it plans to shut down in its progressive walkouts.

Already struck in a dispute centered on work rules are the Southern Railway, Union Pacific, Southern Pacific and the Norfolk & Western. Added for Aug. 11 are the Erie-Lackawanna, Louisville & Nashville and St. Louis and San Francisco.

Six rail firms are scheduled for strike this Friday: the Atchafalaya, Topeka & Santa Fe; Houston Belt & Terminal; Alton & Southern; Duluth, Messabi and Iron Range; Elgin, Joliet and Eastern, and the Bessemer and Lake Erie.

Scheduled for Aug. 6 strikes are the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific; Chicago Milwaukee, St. Paul and Pacific; Missouri-Kansas-Texas; Baltimore & Ohio, and Chesapeake & Ohio.

Secret War in Laos More Difficult for U.S. Day by Day

WASHINGTON (AP) — Day by day and leak by leak, the secret war in Laos is becoming more and more difficult to hide.

Successive administrations, Democratic and Republican, have refused to discuss the extent of U.S. involvement in Laos, a small, landlocked and officially neutral country whose borders touch China, North and South Vietnam, Cambodia, Thailand and Burma.

The question is not whether the United States provides military and economic aid to the neutralist government of Laos, but whether Americans are actually engaged in fighting.

The official response, as enunciated by President Nixon when asked during a Sept. 26, 1969, news conference about American involvement in the war, is: "There are no American combat forces in Laos."

A year later, an Associated Press dispatch from Saigon quoted a military source as saying casualties for U.S. Special Forces troops in Laos were 1 or 2 killed and 3 to 10 wounded each month.

Asked about the figures, a U.S. command spokesman in Saigon said, "There are no U.S. combat troops in Laos."

Slowly, over a long series of hearings, the Senate Foreign Relations Committee has disclosed some of the U.S. involvement in Laos. Other information has come from such sources as the Pentagon papers, present and former government officials, and field dispatches.

Among the disclosures: —There are 4,800 Thai troops led by a Thai general and supported entirely by U.S. funds fighting in Laos despite an act

Mosquito Immune to Pesticides Is Rampant in California

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — A type of mosquito which can infect humans with deadly sleeping sickness is reported out of control in California because it has developed immunity to all known pesticides.

Representatives of the state's health and agricultural agencies met Wednesday to seek new ways to control Culex tarsalis mosquitoes.

Richard F. Peters, director of mosquito abatement for the California Department of Public Health, said that after a quarter-century of using increasingly potent pesticides, the chemicals are no longer effective and the insects are multiplying rapidly, especially in the state's irrigated, agriculturally rich valleys.

The mosquito can carry Venezuelan equine encephalomyelitis (VEE), which is sweeping Mexico and Texas, and another avirulent of sleeping sickness often fatal to humans, Peters said.

"There is a mosquito crisis in the San Joaquin and Sacramento valleys," he said. "We have a mosquito explosion in these areas and it is likely to spread to other parts of the state. We are greatly concerned."

The meeting dealt first with the threat of VEE to horses, where it is fatal about 60 per cent of the time. It affects humans less severely, somewhat like influenza. Plans were made to organize "an army of veterinarians" to immunize all of the state's 400,000 horses.

VEE has not reached California, but Peters predicted it will because of traffic from Mexico. Culex tarsalis is known to carry two other kinds of sleeping sickness. One, the St. Louis strain, affects only humans, mostly adults, and usually is not fatal.

The other, Western equine encephalitis, is often fatal to humans, health officers said. An outbreak in California in 1952 affected some 800 persons. Fifty died and another 50, mostly very young children, survived with permanent brain damage.

Tests for the Western strain are being conducted in all parts of the state, he said.

"The way things stand now," said Dr. Robert van den Bosch of the Division of Biological Control at the University of California at Berkeley, "animals and people are going to die."

Better water management is needed, he said, and new ways must be found to control mosquitoes through natural enemies such as insects and fish which eat the larvae of mosquitoes, he said.

Near-Record U.S. Deficit Is in Making

By BILL NEIKIRK
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration is on the way to piling up the worst back-to-back deficits in federal government operations since 1945-46.

But administration officials shrug off the two deficits, expected to total more than $40 billion in fiscal 1971 and 1972, saying they are fiscally responsible.

The reason, they say, is that the budget spending is pegged to the amount of tax revenues the government would expect to receive in times of high prosperity.

In fiscal 1945, the federal deficit, ballooned by wartime spending, was $45 billion. As peace returned, the deficit dropped to $18 billion the following year.

The treasury Department reported Wednesday the deficit for fiscal 1971, which ended June 30, climbed to $23.2 billion, second highest one-year deficit of the post-World War II era.

Officially, the White House says, the deficit for fiscal 1972 will be $11.6 billion. But already administration officials have acknowledged publicly it will be closer to $18.6 billion.

The largest back-to-back deficits in the past 25 years were those in fiscal 1967 and 1968 when President Lyndon B. Johnson was in office.

But the Nixon deficits are more responsible than those, say administration officials, including Treasury Secretary John B. Connally, a Democrat and close political associate of Johnson.

The fiscal 1971 budget actually showed a $2.5-billion surplus on a full-employment basis, Connally and George P. Shultz, director of the Office of Management and Budget, said. It was the third year in a row a full-employment balance or surplus has been achieved.

"This record is in sharp contrast to that of fiscal years 1966 through 1968, when full-employment deficits totaled more than $40 billion," they said.

Full employment is defined as a 4-per-cent jobless rate. The unemployment rate during the fiscal year averaged 5.7 per cent—and got bigger as the year went along.

Would Make Am. Party Legal Again

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Walter Carruth, the 1970 American party candidate for governor, said Wednesday that party leaders would meet soon to begin a petition drive to obtain enough signatures to make the American party a legal state political party again.

Carruth did not specify when party members would meet to begin the drive.

The American party must get signatures equal to 7 per cent of the votes cast in last year's governor's race in order to run a slate of candidates for political office in 1972.

Steel Strike Authorized in 2 Days

WASHINGTON (AP) — With a steel strike deadline two days away, the United Steelworkers Union says its members have authorized a walkout by a 93 per cent vote.

The industry had made no offer up to Wednesday, informed sources said, but a proposal was expected by the midnight Saturday deadline. The union has said it will not extend contracts beyond then.

"They're still talking," sources said of the contract negotiations involving nine major steel firms with 350,000 workers in steel manufacturing.

The talks broke off Tuesday, informed sources said, over the industry's resistance to the union's demand for unlimited cost-of-living pay. Negotiations resumed Wednesday.

The union's policy committee of 600 local union leaders will meet Friday to consider a new contract offer or to authorize a strike.

Decision on Death Penalty Before Court

By BARRY SCHWEID
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The death penalty will be the first order of business for the Supreme Court when the new term begins in October.

Although there has been no public announcement, the court has notified lawyers to be ready to argue four capital punishment cases beginning Oct. 12, first hearing day of the term.

The scheduling gives the cases priority and means a decision could be announced by winter, provided the justices are not seriously split over the issues.

More than 600 men and women on death rows in 33 states have a stake in the outcome. There has been no execution in the United States since 1967.

This will be the first time the court has considered the theory that the 8th Amendment's ban on "cruel and unusual punishments" outlaws the death penalty. The contention is advanced by John Henry Furman, of Georgia and Earnest James Aikens Jr. of California, both convicted of murder.

Furman was sentenced to death in Chatham County in 1968 for the slaying of William J. Mickie during a burglary of Mickie's home. Furman claimed his pistol fired when he tripped over a wire.

Aikens was sentenced to death in 1965 for the murder of a Ventura housewife, Mary Eaton. Mrs. Eaton was stabbed to death in her home.

The other two cases involve rape, and involve the single question of whether the 8th Amendment prohibits capital punishment when the victim's life was not taken.

Two black men convicted of raping white women are appealing.

Lucious Jackson was sentenced to death in Chatham County, Ga., in 1968 for the rape of Mary George Rose, a physician's wife. Elmer Branch was sentenced in 1967 for the rape of Mrs. Grady Stowe, an elderly widow, at her home near Vernon, Tex.

Georgia and Texas juries have wide discretion in sentencing defendants in rapes. The sentence range from a year in Georgia and five years in Texas all the way up to death.

Last May, the court in a 6-3 ruling rejected two arguments outlawing capital punishment itself.

Plumbing Problem Is Handled; Apollo 15 Nears Moon Landing

Moon Buggy Is Fascinator This Trip

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — "You'll get the hang of it in three or four minutes," David R. Scott assured me as I climbed aboard a model of the moon buggy that he and James B. Irwin are to drive on the lunar surface this weekend.

"It's simple," he said. "Just push forward lightly on the joystick."

I was a little heavy-handed, and the Jeep-like vehicle shot forward ... right into a shallow make-believe crater on a mock moonscape at Cape Kennedy, Fla.

That was several weeks ago. And Scott and Irwin probably were holding their breaths that I didn't wreck their training craft.

But with astronaut training instructor John Olmstead seated beside me, I did get the hang of maneuvering the four-wheel runabout in about 10 minutes.

The main lesson was adjusting to the sensitivity of the T-shaped joystick, mounted like a gear shift on the floor between the two astronauts.

The slightest touch turns the wheels. All you have to do is rest a hand on the top. Push it forward and the lunar vehicle goes forward. Lean your hand to the right and it goes right.

Pull part way back and you're in reverse. Pulling all the way back brakes it.

In 10 minutes you can be tooling along among the craters and boulders of the moonscape with the east of a centipede.

The buggy, called Rover 1, cost $8 million, the most expensive car ever built, and if you're Scott you plan to discard it after driving 22 miles. So you're driving at the rate of $363,636 to the mile.

You can travel at a maximum speed of 10 miles an hour. But—for good reason—average only about eight m.p.h. The engineers say that at faster speeds the wire mesh wheels may tend occasionally to lift a few inches off the ground in the reduced gravity.

But before you start off, you set your navigation system. Because the moon has no magnetic North Pole, you get your bearing by the angle of the sun.

After turning on the power, you point the Rover away from the sun and use a sundial-like device on the dashboard to tell you exactly in which horizontal direction the buggy is pointed.

This information is used to set the gyroscope, in effect giving the navigation system an artificial North Pole.

The system tells you whenever you want to know the direction and distance to the lunar module and the total distance you have traveled.

Apollo Timetable

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — The Apollo 15 timetable—all times Eastern Daylight:

THURSDAY

4:05 p.m.—To achieve lunar orbit insertion, a 6½-minute rocket firing sets up an orbit ranging from 65 to 195 miles above the moon.

4:48 p.m.—After having been traveling ahead of Apollo 15, the spent third stage of the Saturn 5 rocket crashes onto the lunar surface.

8:15 p.m.—In preparation for Friday's lunar landing, another rocket firing places Apollo 15 in an orbit with a low point of 50,000 feet above the moon.

11:34 p.m.—Start of an eight-hour rest period.

FRIDAY

7:19 a.m.—End of sleep period. 8:32 a.m.—A 10-minute live telecast from Apollo 15 is to show the Apennine Mountains-Hadley Rille site where the lunar module, the Falcon, is scheduled to land later in the day.

10:24 a.m.—Astronauts David R. Scott and James B. Irwin enter the Falcon, with astronaut Alfred M. Worden remaining in the command module, the Endeavour.

1:48 p.m.—The Falcon and Endeavour separate.

3:09 p.m.—Worden maneuvers the Endeavour away from the Falcon and into a nearly circular orbit about 60 miles above the lunar surface.

6:03 p.m.—The Falcon's descent engine is fired to take it toward the lunar surface.

6:15 p.m.—The Falcon lands at its Hadley-Apennine lunar base.

8:16 p.m.—Opening the Falcon's top hatch 25 feet above the lunar surface, Scott photographs the landing site area and gives Mission Control a 30-minute description of what he sees.

8:45 p.m.—Scott closes the top hatch.

10:30 p.m.—Scott and Irwin start their first rest period on the lunar surface, while Worden continues until past midnight his duties aboard the orbiting Endeavour.

110 Convicted in Coup Attempt

JAKARTA (AP) — Military courts have convicted 110 military men in the past five years for a part in the murder of six army generals during the 1965 attempted Communist coup, an army spokesman said today.

The spokesman said 10 of the men were sentenced to death, 20 to life terms and the other 80 to prison terms ranging from 15 to 20 years. He refused to say how many of the 10 have been executed.

The coup in October 1965 was crushed quickly by Maj. Gen. Suharto, then chief of the army strategic reserve command and now president of Indonesia.

Beasley, who has served as Assistant Dean of Men, Dean of Students, and Vice President for Student Affairs at Henderson State College for the past eight years, has accepted the position of Dean of Student Life at Stephen F. Austin State University in Texas. He and his wife, Betty, and their two daughters, Jill and Stacy, will move to Nacogdoches this month.

In order to raise funds for the Little League trip to the tournament in Pine Bluff, a game will be played in K-Park Friday night at 6:30 p.m. The Hope All-Stars will play the Almost Stars. No admission will be charged, but persons wishing to donate to this cause may do so at the game.

New 'Tech' for Entry in Moon Gravity

By HOWARD BENEDICT
AP Aerospace Writer

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — The Apollo 15 astronauts, their commander a newly qualified space plumber, zeroed in on the moon with a brief engine burst today and were ready to fire into lunar orbit using a new technique that will require split-second manual control.

The one-second coarse change maneuver at 11:04 a.m. EDT nudged the spaceship onto a more precise path that will take it within 65 miles of the moon's surface later in the day.

Scott, who used a wrench Wednesday night to fix a water leak in the cabin, reported "I guess you can see it was a nice smooth burn."

Apollo 15 was 14,294 miles from the moon, traveling 2,691 miles an hour.

As the astronauts make their close approach to the moon, they will execute a new engine ignition procedure to shoot into orbit.

The new firing procedure is necessary to by-pass a short circuit that developed in the engine system shortly after Scott, James B. Irwin and Alfred M. Worden were launched from Cape Kennedy Monday on their moon-landing expedition.

Astronaut Richard Gordon, commander of the Apollo 15 backup crew, worked out the technique in a computer-driven simulator here and passed up instructions to Apollo 15 Wednesday night.

First trial of the procedure is set for 4:05 p.m. EDT today when Apollo 15 sweeps behind the backside of the moon and fires into orbit about 70 miles above the surface.

The short is in one of two electrical circuits which the astronauts can use to trigger the 20,500-pound thrust engine on their command ship Endeavour.

The second circuit is in good condition, but at least six more firings of the engine are planned and to use the second bank for all six might deteriorate it.

Under the procedures worked out by Gordon, Apollo 15 will use computer control and the good circuit for the most critical burns. A hybrid maneuver employing both circuits under manual control will be used for the firings requiring less, but still extremely accurate, precision, such as the one firing them into moon orbit.

While the astronauts were in a sleep period at 1:25 a.m. today Apollo 15 quietly slipped through a so-called "twilight zone" in which the gravitational influence of the earth and moon is equal. They were 219,308 miles from home and 39,028 miles from the moon.

Bumpers Tours Academy

CAMDEN, Ark. (AP) — Gov. Dale Bumpers and state Rep. Julian Street of Camden toured the Arkansas Law Enforcement Training Academy here Wednesday.

The tour was one in a series of tours the governor is making of state facilities. He toured the state's prisons earlier this month and announced at that time he would be making other "unannounced" trips to various state facilities.

Street said he and the governor sat in on several classes and then inspected the facilities at the academy. The governor stayed about 45 minutes, Street said.

John Wayne Sues Paramount

LOS ANGELES (AP) — John Wayne has sued Paramount Pictures for $1.7 million over the sale to television of "True Grit," which won the veteran actor his only Oscar.

Wayne's suit, filed Tuesday in Superior Court, contends that Paramount sold too cheaply, short-changing Wayne's residual share of the profits.

Paramount should have known, Wayne says, that he "stood a good chance" of winning the Academy Award for 1969, which would increase the value of the film.

But instead of selling "True Grit" separately or with a select group of films, Wayne says, Paramount let it go in the fall of 1969 to the American Broadcasting Co. with 24 other films in a $15 million package.

Wedding Vows Are Repeated

MR. AND MRS. DAVID ALLEN LIVELY

The wedding of Miss Linda Kay Reece, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Reece, and David Allen Lively, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. "Pete" Lively, was solemnized Friday, July 16 at 7:30 p.m. at the Shover Springs Baptist Church.

The Rev. Danny Bullock of Magnolia performed the double-ring ceremony before a seven-branched candelabrum flanked by baskets of orchid-colored asters, gladiolus, and carnations. A union candle completed the setting.

Miss Katherine Smith, Port Arthur, Tex., organist, played a program of pre-nuptial music, the wedding marches, and an accompaniment for a chorus and a soloist.

Singing "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Hawaiian Wedding Song" were Miss Kerry Cloud, Miss Jan Cloud, Miss Judy Wreyford, Bobby Hudgins, all of Waldo, Dennis Tucker of Camden, Miss Nelda Salisbury and John W. Green, both of Hope. As the couple knelt on a prie-dieu following the ceremony, Mr. Hudgins also sang "A Wedding Prayer."

Candles were lighted by Miss Nancy East of Hope and Michael McKenzie of Whelen Springs. Miss Patricia East of Hope was the flower girl, and Master Michael Dillard of Hope, the ring bearer.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a formal-length gown of organza over peau de soie designed with an Empire waistline and a lace bodice. The long, full sleeves were appliqued with lace and seed pearls and had lace cuffs. Tiny satin bows and lace applique were used on the skirt, and the bride wore a mantilla edged in lace. She carried fleur d'amour centered with a purple-throated white orchid atop a white Bible, which had been a high school graduation gift of an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hartsfield. For jewelry the bride wore her paternal grandmother's ruby necklace and her maternal grandmother's wedding ring on her right hand.

Miss Peggy Jean Reece, sister of the bride, was her maid of honor. She wore orchid chiffon over mistique in silver with orchid flowers scattered over it. Orchid velvet ribbon trimmed the dress which had an Empire waistline, a scoop neckline, and long sleeves with wide cuffs. In her hair she wore orchid velvet ribbon and leaves and carried a small hurricane lamp with a white candle surrounded by orchid carnations.

Dressed in identical manner to the honor attendant were the bridesmaids, Miss Helen McCorkle, Mrs. Jim Hickerson of Arkadelphia, and Mrs. Gary Gunter of McNeil.

Richard Allen Lively was his brother's best man. Groomsman were Gilbert Loe

Television and Radio

By JERRY BUCK

AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP) — Roger Moore, looking pleased, said, "All of my friends are in television now. They used to sort of look down their noses at me and say, 'Oh, back in TV again?'"

Moore, a veteran of more than a dozen movies and four series both in the United States and his native England, is back in television once again. As are a number of performers who had never been on the tube before.

One of them, Tony Curtis, is Moore's costar in "The Persuaders," an ABC adventure-comedy for the fall that recently completed 13 months of production in England, Scotland, Wales, France, Spain and Italy.

Curtis is cast as Danny Wilde, an up-from-the-slums millionaire who is teamed with Moore in a free-swinging search for fun "and justice."

Moore, the onetime "Saint," plays Lord Brett Sinclair, described by the network as an aristocratic Englishman born with a silver spoon in his mouth. Moore, the son of a London policeman, said, "Actually, I was born with a silver-plated spoon in my mouth."

"I was lucky that I had struggles in the beginning or I never would have learned anything about life," said Moore, who was in New York for a of Camden, Larry Carman and Rodney Thompkins. Vance Groce of Stamps and Curtis East ushered.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Reece, wore pink Alaskan with matching accessories, and the groom's mother, Mrs. Lively, wore yellow embroidered polyester voile with matching accessories.

A reception followed in the fellowship hall of the church. Those in the house party included Miss Judy England, Miss Nell Ann Churchwell, Miss Virginia Phair, and Mrs. Gilbert Loe. Mrs. Rodney Thompkins presided at the bride's book. Also dispensing courtesies were Mrs. Audria Greenlee, Mrs. John Hawkins, Mrs. Lloyd Rothwell, Miss Laura Sue England, Mrs. Wilton Mullins, Mrs. Wanda East, Mrs. Carter Sutton, and Mrs. Vesta McCorkle.

When the couple left for a trip to the Smoky Mountains in North Carolina and Tennessee, Mrs. Lively wore a white, polyester double-knit dress with black and white accessories and pinned the orchid from her wedding bouquet at her shoulder.

With their return, they are at home on Route 1, Washington. He is employed at the Post Office in Hope, and she will be an instructor at Hope High School this fall.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. John B. Hartsfield, Michael Hartsfield, El Dorado; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Williamson, Greg and Randy, Forth Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Hartsfield, Mrs. Florine Hartsfield, Arizona; Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Conner, Arlington, Tex.; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin McKenzie, Jr., Michaelyn, Miles Lewis and Michael, Whelen Springs; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Smith, Mineral Springs.

brief visit. "I was offered contracts by the Rank company because I was pretty. If I had taken it I would have made one picture and been dead after that."

"The Persuaders" is being made by Sir Lew Grade's Associated Television in England, the same outfit that is producing "Shirley's World" for ABC. It stars Shirley MacLaine, another film star making her debut in television.

A news release from the British company says that Moore and Curtis are working in the tradition of Clark Gable and Spencer Tracy, the friendly antagonists of the movie "Boom Town."

"I suppose you could say we are," Moore said when asked about it. "Tony is the one with the short, fat, hairy legs. And I'm the one with the big ears."

Moore began his film career as an animator of training films for the British armed forces. After service in the British Army he gradually broke in as an actor and besides movies made such series as "Ivanhoe," "The Alaskans," "Maverick" and "The Saint." His appearance as a guest on "Maverick" led to a continuing role in 20 episodes.

He said, "I made about 15 movies, all bad. I made one picture that was good and it's not being released here. 'The Man Who Haunted Himself.' I was proud because I was playing something different than myself."

All-Stars Noted for Their Speed

By F. RICHARD CICCONE
(CHICAGO AP) — There is a popular theory that football games are won between the lines but the recent College All Star battles indicate they are usually lost in the secondary.

The All Stars haven't knocked off the professional champions in this midsummer classic since 1963 and each year it seems that a Joe Namath, Bart Starr or Len Dawson has amazing success in passing against the collegiates.

This year, the All Stars have a host of speedy talent ready to stop Baltimore and Earl Morrall, the 38-year-old quarterback who came off the bench in the Super Bowl and led the Colts to a 16-13 triumph over Dallas.

Blanton Collier, retired coach of the Cleveland Browns, making his debut as All Star mentor, has four cornerbacks to patrol the airways and he says "they all have speed."

This speed—belonging to Len Dunlap of North Texas State, Clarence Scott of Kansas State, Isaac Thomas of Bishop College and Norm Thompson of Utah—will be on display—and on the spot—Friday night at Soldier Field in the 38th renewal of the series. The pros hold a 29-9-2 series edge. The game will be televised nationally by ABC at 9:30 p.m. EDT.

It will be up to Dunlap, Scott, Thomas and Thompson to stop Baltimore's receiving corps of Ray Perkins, Roy Jefferson and Eddie Hinton.

Dunlap and Thompson share an NCAA record for returning interceptions for touchdowns while Scott's coach at Kansas State, Vince Gibson, called his man the finest defensive player in the nation.

A man who may take exception of that remark will be safety for the All Stars. He is Jack Tatum, twice an All American and the anchor of Ohio State's defense in 1968-69-70, three seasons in which the Bucks lost only twice.

Tatum will be responsible for shutting off Baltimore's tight ends, John Mackey and Tom Mitchell.

Morall likes to throw to his backfield men and the All Star linebacks, Isaiah Robertson, the Los Angeles Rams top draft pick, Ronnie Hornsby of Southeastern Louisiana, the collegians defensive captain, Jack Ham of Penn State and Tim Kelly of Notre Dame, will try to stop him.

The Colts are listed as 10-point favorites.

Basketball Legislation Is Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress was scheduled to receive today legislation permitting merger of the two professional basketball leagues.

Bills to partially exempt the National and American Basketball Associations from the antitrust laws were to be introduced by Sen. Roman Hruska, R-Neb., with 15 to 25 cosponsors, and Rep. Jack B. Brooks, D-Tex., and 15 others.

The legislation would give pro basketball the same exemption Congress allowed for pro football five years ago.

Sources said the Senate Judiciary Committee probably will hold hearings on the measure about the middle of September, after returning from the month-long August vacation.

Orioles Stun A's; 3-2 Score

By BRUCE LOWITT
Associated Press Sports Writer
"All I ask," Oakland Manager Dick Williams was commenting before the game, "is that my players hustle and not beat themselves."

The Robinsons of Baltimore must have overheard him—with a couple of astonishing results. Brooks Robinson, the Orioles' vacuum cleaner of a third baseman who has been voted the American League's top man at the hot corner for 11 successive seasons, suddenly turned but-terfingers Wednesday night.

He committed three errors on a pair of two-out grounders and slapped into a pair of rally-wrecking double plays that seemed to give Oakland a 2-0 victory.

But in the bottom of the ninth inning it was Frank Robinson to the rescue.

John "Blue Moon" Odom had checked the Orioles on just three hits before singles by Don Buford and Merv Rettenmund knocked him out with none away.

Big Frank wasted no time against reliever Roland Fin- gers, who only the night before had been victimized by Brooks' two-out, two-run homer in the ninth that powered Baltimore to a triumph.

Frank pounced on his first pitch, driving it deep into the right field bleachers, catapulting the East Division-leading Orioles to a 3-2 stunner over the A's, front-runners in the West.

In other American League contests, the Chicago White Sox rallied to beat the New York Yankees 5-4, Milwaukee silenced Boston 5-0, California topped Cleveland 5-1, Detroit overhauled Kansas City 8-7 and Washington blitzed Minnesota 7-1.

In the National League, St. Louis whipped the New York Mets 6-3 and San Francisco nipped Atlanta 2-1 in afternoon action, Houston flipped Philadelphia 6-3, the Chicago Cubs bombed Montreal 10-2, San Diego beat Cincinnati 4-2 and Pittsburgh zipped Los Angeles 4-0.

"It just wasn't my night," understated Brooks Robinson, who couldn't recall ever committing three errors in an inning.

Frank, meanwhile, hadn't gotten a hit in 15 at-bats before the climactic clout, his 17th round-tripper of the year, and his average had dipped below the .300 mark, although he was among the league leaders in runs batted in with 60 going into the game.

So when the elated Orioles stormed into the locker room after the victory, Brooks grabbed him and shouted:

"It's about time you were doing something. We've been carrying you for a long time."

Ron Swoboda cracked a two-out homer in the top of the ninth, his first of the year, to put the Yanks ahead 4-3 before the White Sox swarmed back in the bottom of the inning.

Mike Andrew's leadoff walk sent New York starter Fritz Peterson to the showers and pinch singles by Pat Kelly and Carlo May tied it up against Lindy McDaniel.

With one away, Ed Herrmann slapped an apparent double play grounder at shortstop Gene Michael, whose relay to Horace Clarke at second base got the second out of the inning.

But Clarke's toss to first bounced past Danny Cater and Kelly steamed home with the winning run.

Rookie Jim Slaton of the Brewers blanked the Red Sox on just three hits, the 17th shutout by the Milwaukee staff this year.

He got plenty of support as Tommy Harper had a two-run homer and Ted Kubiak snacked a two-run double.

Shortstop Jack Heidemann booted a pair of routine grounders providing the Angels with a pair of fourth-inning runs, the only ones they needed as Rudy May went the route, scattering six Indians hits.

Al Kaline and Rakes Brown unloaded two-run homers in the bottom of the ninth to carry the Tigers back from a 7-4 deficit. Chuck Harrison had a three-run blast for the Royals.

Bill Gogolewski had a one-hitter for seven innings before firing, then Joe Grzenda came on as the two Washington hurlers, backed by Frank Howard's

Snead Top Contender in Tourney

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Golf Writer
LIGONIER, Pa. (AP) — Sam Snead, who was winning golf tournaments when Lou Gehrig was still hitting homers for the New York Yankees, was holding forth on a variety of subjects.

"Physical condition is very important for a golfer," the old West Virginia hillbilly said.

"Swimming, bowling are very bad for you. You tighten up muscles you have to loosen up later. Very bad. Running. That's the best thing a golfer can do. Run."

And does Sam do his running?

"Only when something gets after me," the 59-year-old giant of another golfing era grinned.

Snead was still basking in the glow of his fourth-place finish, and $11,000 check, at the Westchester Classic last week before teeing off in the first round of the $200,000 PGA National Team Championship today.

"I thought maybe I really had something going there," said Snead, still sporting the brightly-banded straw hat and the smooth, effortless swing that have been his trademarks since he became a regular on the pro golf tour in 1937.

"I thought maybe I could have had a really good one, where I was hitting the ball, but these old nerves just won't hold out. You just can't win if you're taking 35-40 putts a round now-a-days."

Snead is teamed with 44-year-old Gardner Dickinson in this event in which scoring is based on the better ball on each hole by each of 64 two-man teams.

Despite the fact that they're the oldest team in the field—total age 103—they're ranked as one of the top challengers to defending champions Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus, the heavy favorites.

"It's absolutely amazing that a man Snead's age is still capable of winning a tournament," Palmer said.

"But then, Sam's an absolute-ly amazing man."

Snead scored the last of his 84 official victories in the 1965 Greensboro Open. Putting miseries—"It's just these worn-out old nerves"—have kept him away from victory since then, but he's been a steady money-maker despite a relatively light schedule.

Lee Trevino, the Super Mex who vaulted into a dominant position with his sweep of the U.S., Canadian and British Open crowns, and teammate veteran Howie Johnson were the top threat for the $40,000 first prize behind Palmer and Nicklaus.

Other standout teams included former winners Bobby Nichols and George Archer, Australian Bruce Crampton and Orville Moody, brothers Dave and Mike Hill, CBS Golf Classic winners Bert Yancey and Tom Weiskopf, and Tommy Aaron and Masters champion George Archer.

"THE INCREDIBLE SHRINKING MAN on the tour," or "The Invasion of the Giant Golf Balls"? It's neither, actually. The golfer is playing on a Washington, D.C. course near a Nike missile site and what appears to be an overfed golf ball is actually part of the Nike installation.

Dodgers Stopped by Walker

By BERT ROSENTHAL
Associated Press Sports Writer

It has taken Luke Walker quite a while to convince Pittsburgh Manager Danny Murtaugh that his arm is sound. While Murtaugh has just become a believer, the Los Angeles Dodgers were sure of it 11 days ago.

Walker, slowed by elbow problems this season, pitched his second straight strong game—both against the Dodgers—stopping Los Angeles 4-0 on four hits Wednesday night.

It was his first start since he one-hit Los Angeles 7-1 July 18, losing his no-hit bid in the ninth inning on a leadoff homer by rookie Joe Ferguson.

While Walker was playing the Dodgers for the second consecutive time, Ferguson Jenkins, the National winner, posted his 17th victory as the Chicago Cubs trounced Montreal 10-2.

Elsewhere in the NL, San Diego downed Cincinnati 4-2; Houston defeated Philadelphia 6-3; San Francisco edged Atlanta 2-1, and St. Louis trimmed New York 6-3.

In the American League, Detroit overcame Kansas City 8-7; Chicago overtook New York 5-4; Washington whipped Minnesota 7-1; Milwaukee blanked Boston 5-0; Baltimore shaded Oakland 3-2, and California clipped Cleveland 5-1.

Walker, the biggest winner on the Pirate staff last season with 15 victories but now only 5-7, again was in complete command against the slumping Dodgers, who suffered their 15th loss in 21 games. It was nicked for second-inning singles by Wes Parker and Willie Crawford, retired 19 batters in a row, then allowed ninth-inning singles to Manny Mota and Maury Wills.

He walked only one and struck out nine. It was his first shutout since April 8 when he beat Philadelphia 2-0 on five hits. After that, Walker lost his next six decisions and was sent to the bullpen.

His one-hitter against the Dodgers was his first victory since June 23 and his first start since June 29. Afterward he said:

"I'd rather pitch the rest of the year than pitch a no-hitter and not pitch any more this season."

There seems little doubt he will get many more starts this season. Bill Singer, 5-13, and winless since June 12, absorbed his fourth consecutive setback for the Dodgers. He gave up a run in the second on Bob Robertson's 20th homer, a run in the fifth on Al Oliver's double and Roberto Clemente's single, another run in the seventh on Jackie Hernandez' triple and Bill Mazeroski's sacrifice fly, and the final run in the eighth on singles by Clemente and Willie Stargell and a sacrifice fly by Robertson.

Jenkins, 17-8, became the top strikeout artist in the National League, fanning seven Montreal batters for a season's total of 177.

He scattered 10 hits—all singles.

Osborne Wins Buckeye Tournament

By GEORGE STRODE
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — An upset victory over Clark Graebner in the $20,000 Buckeye Tennis Championships Wednesday did a lot for Jim Osborne's confidence, shaken earlier in the year by a fractured hand bone.

"I felt I could beat him. I sure needed it," said Osborne, 26, of Honolulu, of his stunning 7-6, 6-4 second round triumph over the third-seeded Graebner of New York City.

The top seeds, No. 1 Zeljko Franulovic of Yugoslavia and No. 2 Tom Gorman of Seattle, moved into the quarterfinals with victories.

Franulovic, who needed five straight points in a third set tie-breaker to nip Jeff Borowiak of Berkeley, Calif., 3-6, 6-4, 7-6, faced Erik Van Dillen of San Mateo, Calif., today.

Gorman, a 6-3, 6-2 victor over Boro Jovanovic of Yugoslavia, takes on Frenchman George Goven Friday.

Jim McManus of Berkeley, Calif., and Osborne, top-seeded in doubles, were to make their debut today against Rahoon Rahim of Pakistan and Borowiak, 1971 NCAA kings, in the quarterfinals. They drew a first round bye.

In other quarterfinals, Rahim faced Jim Connors of Los Angeles, the NCAA champion as a freshman this year, today and Ray Moore of South Africa battles Osborne Friday.

Already in the doubles quarterfinals are Chileans Jamie Filol and Patricio Cornejo, Frenchmen Pierre Barthes and Goven, Franulovic and Jovanovic; Roscoe Tanner of Lookout Mountain, Tenn., and Connors.

gles—and helped win his sixth game in a row with a two-run single, capping a three-run third inning against Carl Mor- to. The Cubs also scored three times in the first off Morton, with Billy Williams and Ron Smith each singling in a run and the other coming home on an error.

Dave Campbell's three-run homer in the fifth inning—his first homer since May 24—carried Clay Kirby and the Padres past Cincinnati. Kirby stopped the Reds on four hits, including Tony Perez' two-run homer, in beating them for the fifth straight time over the past two seasons.

Joe Morgan supported Don Wilson's six-hit, seven-strikeout pitching against Philadelphia with a triple, a single and two runs batted in. Morgan said he believes the Astros, who trail first-place San Francisco by 10 games in the West, can still overtake the Giants.

Alan Gallagher drove in both San Francisco runs against Atlanta, smacking a run-scoring double in the sixth and a tie-breaking single in the eighth. His game-winning hit scored Dick Dietz, who had doubled, and enabled John Cumberland to gain his sixth victory in seven decisions.

Joe Torre, the league's leading batter at .368, cracked a two-run homer and rookie Jose Cruz belted a solo homer, helping St. Louis beat the Mets for Steve Carlton's 14th victory.

Still Going After Loss of 2 Ribs

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer
CALI, Colombia (AP) — The United States is sending a lot of "hungry kids", pointing toward the 1972 Munich Olympics, into the track and field competition of the sixth Pan American Games, opening Friday.

"For the first time in three Pan Am Games, we will have a true Olympic nucleus and not a track squad we had to beg or persuade to organize," Arthur G. Lentz, U.S. Olympic Committee Executive Director, said on the eve of the western hemisphere athletic show's kickoff.

Following traditional opening ceremonies Friday in the main Pascual Guerrero Stadium, the six-day track and field competition begins Saturday in the same arena.

This bustling city of almost one million in the Valle del Cauca, some 100 miles inland from the Pacific Ocean has had typical organizational pains in preparing for an influx of 2,800 athletes from 30 countries in North and South America.

But trials and tribulations of athletes crammed into the Pan Am village, better known as Claustrophobia Manor, should subside Friday when two days of inaugural activity culminates with official opening of the games by proclamation of Colombian President Misael Pastrana Borrero.

The ceremony actually began Thursday with arrival (5 p.m., EDT) by military escort from Palmira, 25 miles north, of the Olympic torch kept flaming since the 1968 Mexico City Olympics.

The torch was to be placed overnight in an urn in Pan American Park, adjacent to the main stadium. On Friday, after a gymnastic demonstration and a traditional colorful parade of all competing athletes, the torch will be trotted in before a capacity 60,000 by Jaime Aparicio, Colombia's 1951 Pan Am 400-meter hurdles champion.

Then, Saturday action begins for 10 of the 20 listed sports in the games which continue through Aug. 13. The showcase sport, track and field, opens with unveiling of two of Uncle Sam's three world record claimants and the U.S. top 1,500-meter Olympic prospect, Marty Liquori of Villanova.

The first track and field gold medal winner is expected to be Wisconsin's sensational high jumper, Pat Matzdorf, who smashed the world record with a leap of 7-6 1/4 in the USA-Russian meet July 3. The high jump and 10,000 meter finals both are scheduled Saturday night.

Saturday's qualifications also will display 20 year old John Davis, world record holder in the 400-meter run, and Liquori in the 1,500 meter run. The third U.S. world record claimant, hurdler Rod Milburn, also 20, goes into action Monday.

Ozark Coach Resigns

OZARK, Ark. (AP) — Eulis Walker, coach of the Ozark American Legion Baseball team, said Wednesday the members of the team had quit and he was resigning as coach.

The Ozark team forfeited its opening-round game Monday night in the District 1 American Legion baseball tournament at Springdale because some members of the team refused to get haircuts.

The Ozark team withdrew from the tournament when District Commissioner Chuck Roberts told Walker that his players would have to get haircuts before they could play.

An American Legion rule forbids long hair or moustaches. Walker said his players did not have hair over their ears or "hippie-type" haircuts. He said the players were "badly hurt" because they were not allowed to play.

Walker said he would not coach again next year. "I'm tired of it," he said.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
CHICAGO (AP) — Ben Mintz, athletic director of Cornell University, was in good condition Wednesday after suffering a minor stroke, hospital officials reported.

Mintz regained partial movement of his right side and is able to talk, hospital officials said.

They said further tests will be conducted Thursday.

RUTLAND, Vt. (AP) — Fred Kask of Weathersfield, Conn. holds a one-stroke lead going into the final gruelling 36 holes today of the New England Amateur golf championship.

Kask fired a second-round 68 Wednesday to go with his opening-round 67 for a 137 total.

John Ruby of Stratford, Conn., the defending champion, carded his second consecutive 69 Wednesday and was one stroke behind Kask.

CHERRY POINT, N.C. (AP) — A competitive course-record 65 has given Air Force Sgt. Jeff Parry of Randolph AFB, Tex., a four-stroke lead going into today's third round of the 72-hole Interservice golf championship.

His round of seven under par Wednesday gave him a 36-hole

Convention Report

DEAN MURPHY AND KENNETH HAMILTON

Dean Murphy and Kenneth Hamilton made their reports of the recent San Francisco Convention of Kiwanis International at Tuesday's meeting of the local club. President Dale Franks having made his report at an earlier meeting.

Mr. Murphy went into some detail concerning the election of officers. The Mo-Ark District delegation was running an Arkansas, Ralph Wilson of Osceola, for International Treasurer which leads to International President. Mr. Wilson has served his own Club, his Division, his District, and has just served as International Vice President. However, this was of no avail. Mr. Wilson was defeated.

Mr. Murphy also reported on two amendments to the constitution of Kiwanis International which became somewhat controversial in the debate on them. Since its inception Kiwanis International has prohibited fund raising activities by any form of lottery or game of chance. An attempt was made to liberalize this point, but it was soundly defeated. Also since its beginning Kiwanis has had as one of its Objects "The Support of Churches in their Spiritual Aims". By a small majority this was changed to read "To support the spiritual aims of the nation".

Mr. Hamilton concluded the program with some lighter remarks and with some thoughts gleaned from his attendance at various conferences during the total of 134. The first-round leader at 67, Marine Cpl. Mike Mitchell of San Diego, shot 71 Wednesday and was in second place at 138 in the open division.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Ferd Keller scored in the opening half for the game's only goal as Hannover 96 of West Germany defeated Club Leon of Mexico 1-0 in an international soccer match Wednesday night at Kezar Stadium before a crowd of 3,500.

Final Decision on Walker

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Garry Brewer, Gov. Dale Bumpers' aide for prison affairs, said Wednesday that Bumpers would make the final decision on whether to allow James Dean Walker to stand trial in Idaho on a kidnapping charge.

Idaho officials have asked that Walker, an inmate at the Arkansas Penitentiary, be allowed to stand trial in Idaho and then returned to Arkansas.

Brewer said that Idaho officials would be advised that they could submit a formal request for the return of Walker under a new state law authorizing interstate agreements on detainers of persons charged with crimes.

Walker is serving a life sentence for the 1963 slaying of a North Little Rock policeman.

Prison Sentence Set Aside

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The 12-year prison sentence of James Albert Britt, 23, of Tupelo (Jackson County) was set aside Wednesday by U.S. District Court Judge Oren Harris. Harris ruled that Britt was not properly advised of his right to a court-appointed attorney either at the time of his arrest or at his trial in March of last year.

Britt had pleaded guilty to charges of forgery and uttering in Woodruff County.

Harris ordered that Britt be held for five days to allow Woodruff County authorities time to file new charges. If no charge is filed, Britt will be freed, Harris said.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

ANOTHER PRE-TEEN COLUMN

Dear Helen:
Us kids liked your column to us. Even if we aren't teenagers yet, we have problems too, so would you please write another column to the under-13-year bunch? —THANK YOU
Dear T.Y.:
Here goes: —H.
Dear Helen:
I am only 11 and a friend of mine was caught stealing in a store. He won't do it again. I know! But my parents won't let me go fishing with him any more because they think he's a bad example. If I give them one bit of lip, I'll get whacked across the mouth. If I get caught with him I'll have to stay in the rest of the summer.

How could I get my best friend back without causing either of us trouble? —HELPLESS
Dear Helpless:
This is an open letter to your parents: One shoplift doesn't make a juvenile delinquent. How would YOU feel if your son, because of a single goof, was put off-limits by all his friends' parents? More important, what would happen to HIM? He'd have no other choice but to run with the crowd that didn't ostracize him, and he might become a REAL J.D. before he reached 13. —H.

Dear Helen:
I have a really nice friend. Only thing I don't like about her is she tells lies. She calls them fibs. I never know when she's telling the truth or lying. What makes her do it and what should I do? —BECKY, age 12
Dear Becky:
Your friend may think so poorly of her real self that she makes up stories about her daydream self, to impress others. Or perhaps she's just a good kisser who thinks it's funny when people fall for her "fibs." Or maybe she has such an active imagination that she just MUST try it out on friends.

The first type needs expert help from someone who can make her feel worthy. If she is the second or third type, she'll calm down when a fib gets her in real trouble. Maybe you can open her eyes. —H.
Dear Helen:
I have a close friend. Sometimes we get in fights, and when he hits, it hurts. Then we wonder what we were fighting about, afterwards. But it still hurts. How can I stop this because he has longer arms and hits harder? —SCOTT, 10 1/2
Dear Scott:
I once heard of a fellow who stopped a friend's swing in midair by saying, "Hey, did you know you have 275 hairs on each finger?" They ended up counting hairs instead of exchanging blows.

What I mean is: change the subject first. Get your friend into a new idea and he'll calm down, because he really doesn't want to hit a pal—he just wants to let you know he can. If you make him feel important in a different way, he won't need to prove it with his fists. —H.

Dear Helen:
I'm 11, my friend is 10. We want to make money, so we try to sell knitted belts, cookies and things we make. Our neighbors are nice but they're looking for "good buys" which means we don't make any profit. Help! —DESPERATE
Dear Des.:
How about selling services, like weeding gardens, walking dogs, etc.? —H.

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble or just plain trouble, let Helen help YOU. She will also welcome your own amusing experiences. Address Helen Bottel in care of Hope Star. Copyright, 1971, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

The young expert took the first trick with dummy's king of hearts and led a spade toward his hand. The old man hopped up with the ace while the young expert carefully dropped his 10. Obviously, the old coot had a singleton ace or doubleton ace-jack.

The old timer chuckled and led back a heart to knock out dummy's last stopper. The young expert led a spade to his queen and burst into doggerel when the old duffer played the nine. Without question, the old fool was senile! How could anyone rise with the ace when he could have played the nine?

The young expert led a spade and finessed dummy's eight. It was then the old man produced the jack of spades.

"You are old, Father William," the young expert said, "and your hair is exceedingly white, yet you incessantly stand on your head, do you think at your age this is right?"

"In my youth," said the sage, "I learned how to play from Culbertson, Whitehead and Shoup. If you think I started about yesterday, you are sure to wind up in the soup."

The young welp was in the soup all right. If Father William had played the nine of spades instead of the ace the expert would have finessed the 10 and wound up with three spade tricks, game and rubber. As it was he went down two while apologizing to Lewis Carroll.

Receive Certificate

Roy Kumpke presenting certificate to president Harry Cagle.

Hope Lions' Monday luncheon was highlighted by a visit from Roy Kumpke, Director of Arkansas Enterprises for the Blind in Little Rock. Kumpke has been a guiding force in the development and growth of the AEB since its beginnings 24 years ago.

Helen Keller challenged the Lions of Arkansas years ago to devote special effort to aiding the blind; the rehabilitation center is a result of that challenge.

The blind, especially the newly blinded, have to make psychological and emotional adjustments to their circumstances before they are ready for vocational training. This year the school has trainees from 37 states and four foreign countries. The budget for this year is $781,000. Money is raised in various ways, but most of it comes from state vocational rehabilitation funds, light bulbs, brown and mop sales by Lions and cash contributions from Lions and other interested persons.

Several years ago a "10 for 1" club was started to aid the program. The idea was to raise $10 for each member of the club. Kumpke's visit to the Hope club was for the purpose of presenting to the club a certificate stating that they were the fifth club in the state to raise $20 for members for assistance to the blind. The training center in Little Rock is unique in that it was the first in the nation and has served as a model for other centers.

Don Don Freel, program chairman, introduced Kumpke. Freel is also chairman of the

Cease-Fire Called for in Indo-China

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH PARIS (AP) — David K. E. Bruce, outgoing U.S. negotiator at the Vietnam peace talks, called today for immediate negotiations on a general, internationally controlled cease-fire throughout Indochina.

Bruce, 73, made the proposal at the final weekly session of the peace talks he will attend. He is due to leave Paris Sunday and is scheduled to be replaced soon by William J. Porter, U.S. ambassador to South Korea.

The cease-fire proposal has been consistently rejected by the Communist negotiators since it was first put forward nearly two years ago.

Bruce's deputy, Philip C. Habib, is to head the U.S. delegation until Porter arrives in Paris next month.

At last week's session, Xuan Thuy described the cease-fire proposal as "absurd."

Earlier, the Viet Cong charged the elections in South

Vietnam are being "feverishly" rigged "under the direct supervision of the American Embassy in Saigon."

The charge was made by Mrs. Nguyen Thi Binh, the Viet Cong foreign minister, at the Paris peace talks. She said American assurances of nonintervention in the presidential election in October is "pure hypocrisy."

The session marked the final appearance at the talks of 73-year-old Ambassador David K.E. Bruce, the chief of the American delegation, who is retiring Sunday. He will be succeeded by William J. Porter, now U.S. ambassador to South Korea, and in the interim the U.S. delegation will be headed by Philip Habib, who has been chief deputy to both Bruce and his predecessor, Henry Cabot Lodge.

Neither Mrs. Binh nor Xuan Thuy, the chief North Vietnamese delegate, referred to Bruce's departure in their prepared speeches to the conference.

"In the provisionally occupied zones of South Vietnam," said Mrs. Binh, "fraudulent electoral maneuvers are feverishly being prepared under the direct supervision of the American Embassy in Saigon.

"All levels of the population and all opponents of Nguyen Van Thieu are subjected to increasing repression. The military, police and administrative apparatus and all the financial and propaganda sources with which the United States has provided the Saigon regime are dedicated to these fraudulent elections seeking to keep Nguyen Van Thieu in power."

Complaint Is Dismissed

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — Frank Sinatra's complaint filed against the New Jersey State Investigation Commission has been dismissed by a federal judge.

The retired singer, currently on a European vacation, filed the complaint on Nov. 28, 1969, seeking to quash a warrant for his arrest and a subpoena that he appear before the commission to tell what he knew about organized crime in the state.

The arrest warrant was issued when he refused to testify.

But the complaint became moot after he finally appeared before a secret session of the commission on Feb. 17, 1970. Kenya and the Congo with the

Urban League Hits Nixon Policy Toward U.S. Minority Groups

DETROIT (AP) — The new director of the National Urban League has criticized the Nixon administration's record on minority groups as one of ambiguities, aiming a verbal barb at statements made by Vice President Spiro T. Agnew.

"Black people are concerned at the way in which minor figures, endowed with only symbolic powers, have gratuitously insulted their leadership and, by implication, all black people," Vernon Jordan Jr. said.

Jordan succeeds the late Whitney Young Jr. as executive director of the league Jan. 1. He spoke Wednesday night before the closing session of the 61st annual National Urban League Conference, which drew 5,000 delegates.

Vice President Agnew, during a just-concluded visit to Africa, had contrasted the moderation and understanding of "inter-national problems" he said are shown by leaders of Ethiopia, Kenya and the Congo with the "querulous complaints and the constant recriminations against the rest of society" which he attributed to unspecified American black leaders.

"To mistake the legitimate and just demands of an oppressed people as 'complaining and carping' is to betray an insensitivity and callousness unworthy of high office," Jordan said without mentioning Agnew by name.

Jordan said the administration's record on minority groups could be characterized as one with a pattern of one step forward, matched by another step backward. He called for a "total commitment, with massive resources, for an end to poverty and racism in the land."

Under his leadership, Jordan said, the Urban League will adopt several new programs, including a voter registration drive in Northern cities and a drug prevention and educational program.

Black power, he said, will remain "just a shout and a cry" unless it is channeled into constructive efforts to bring about black political power.

In an earlier interview, Jordan said most black Americans still believe in integration despite widespread racism.

"Black people still believe in this country," said the 35-year-old Atlanta-born attorney.

"Even the angriest one of us somehow believes that if we keep on at some point things are going to change. There's evidence for that," said Jordan, who comes to the Urban League after 19 months as executive director of the United Negro College Fund.

Medina Trial to Resume Aug. 16

By KATHRYN JOHNSON
Associated Press Writer
PT. MCPHERSON, Ga. (AP) — Capt. Ernest L. Medina will be judged by five higher-ranking officers, all of them vietnam veterans, when his court-martial on charges of murder and assault at My Lai resumes Aug. 16.

The jurors were agreed upon Wednesday. Five is the minimum required to hear the case.

The military judge, Col. Kenneth Howard, asked Medina how he pleaded. Medina's defense lawyer, F. Lee Bailey, answered for the Montrose, Colo., officer.

"Not guilty to everything, your honor," said Bailey, standing with Medina.

Then, the court-martial was recessed for 18 days to allow the government to subpoena 48 witnesses and arrange for their transportation here.

The jurors will be two colonels, two lieutenant colonels, and a major. Four are combat veterans of either Vietnam or Korea, and the fifth served a noncombat tour in Vietnam.

Medina, the commander of infantrymen who swept through My Lai on March 16, 1968, is charged with the premeditated murder of "not less than 100 Vietnamese men, women and children," the specific murders of a Vietnamese woman and a boy, and with assault.

If convicted of murder, Medina faces a maximum penalty of life imprisonment.

Medina, who was Lt. William L. Calley Jr.'s commander, testified at Calley's trial that he had seen none of his troops shooting civilians, and denied, as claimed by Calley that he had issued any such orders.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower has been given the first "Ike" silver dollar.

The new coin—bearing the late president's likeness on one side and the insignia of the Apollo 11 moon mission on the other—will be released for general circulation this fall.

Mrs. Eisenhower received the coin from President Nixon at a ceremony Tuesday marking the nation's return to the use of the silver dollar. It was the first silver dollar minted in the United States in 36 years.

Consumer Food Costs Up in June

By DON KENDALL
AP Farm Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Higher prices paid farmers for key products were the main reason for a rise in consumer food costs last month, the Agriculture Department reported today.

Cost of a selected "market basket" list of food rose 0.7 per cent in June, including retail price increases for beef, pork, frying chickens and fresh fruit. But farmers' share of the food dollar dropped from the June 1970 level.

The farm value of the basket of food rose 1.6 per cent from May, while middlemen collected only 0.1 per cent more, their lowest rise in four months. Over the long haul, however, rising middleman costs have been the larger factor in consumer food price increases.

On an annual basis, the entire market basket in June cost consumers $1,251 for a typical household. Of that, farmers got $481 and middlemen $770.

In May the selected list cost $1,243, of which farmers received $473 and middlemen, allowing for rounded figures, $770.

A year earlier, the June list cost $1,228 and included $480 for farmers and $748 for middlemen who transport, process and sell the items at retail.

Thus, farmers in June, while contributing most to the one-month retail price increase, gained only $1 in their share of the market basket while middlemen boosted theirs $22 from a year earlier.

Today's report showed retail prices for market-basket foods rose 1.9 per cent from a year earlier. During the same time, farmers averaged only 0.3 per cent more while middlemen prices were boosted 3 per cent—10 times the farm rate.

Put another way, the June increase left farmers with a 38-cent share of each consumer food dollar, same as in May and one cent less than in June of last year.

The analysis was in a monthly report issued by the Economic Research Service, started last April to call attention to factors involved in retail grocery prices.

those items in on pawn," he added, "because I know they will always be recovered as soon as possible."

Bruchman said that soon after he moved to Winslow, the government began placing more and more controls on the Indians. "The government was trying to 'civilize' the Navajo," he scoffed. "Years ago a government man came to the reservation and saw the Indians spinning wool for rugs by hand. He went back to Washington and pretty soon a big shipment of spinning wheels arrived.

"The Indians really appreciated the spinning wheels because it meant they didn't have to go out to look for firewood on cold mornings.

"What that government man ignored is the fact that a Navajo rug represents a prayer and you can't make a prayer with a spinning wheel. It has to be done by hand or the prayer won't be answered."

He recalled another amusing incident. "Another government man came out to inspect the Navajo sheep and decided the grade of wool wasn't good enough. He said he would have about 50 American sheep shipped out here and told the Indians to breed their own animals to

"The blankets and shawls are probably the only products produced by the white man that have become a part of the Indian culture. They like the quality, designs and colors. And that's not surprising because these blankets and shawls have been made especially for the Indians since the early 1900s.

"When a Navajo child is born, he receives a Pendleton blanket. When he dies he is buried wrapped in the same blanket."

So it seems the white man makes blankets to sell to the Indians. Weren't you taught it was the other way around?

One aspect of trade that has become an accepted part of Indian economics is pawning. However, Bruchman explained, the Indian views pawning as a form of safekeeping rather than as a way to obtain money. "The most valuable items to the Indians are their handmade jewelry and their shawls and blankets. I always take

Purchase of Office Building Is Considered for Crowded Agencies

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Secretary of State Kelly Bryant confirmed Wednesday the Bumpers administration was considering the possibility of purchasing an office building to meet the space needs of crowded state agencies.

The National Old Line Building, which faces the state Capitol building, has been mentioned as one which the administration might desire to purchase.

"We've thought about it," said Bryant. "Nothing has been done. We've talked about other things."

Bryant is secretary of the new Public Building Authority created by Act 56 of 1971. The other four members, who serve by appointment of the governor, have not yet been named by Gov. Dale Bumpers.

Troy B. York, director of the Department of Planning, said the governor had asked him not to take any action to consolidate his staff until a decision can be made on the purchase of an office building for all departmental operations.

York's department, because of lack of space, has been dispersed to several locations.

Robert D. Lowry, executive vice president of National Old Line Insurance Co., said Wednesday that the building was not for sale.

He said that neither he nor W. E. "Bill" Darby, president of the firm, had talked with anyone in state government about possible sale of the building.

"We built it for a purpose," Lowry said. "It's not for sale."

Bryant said that the Marion Hotel and the Albert Pike Hotel, further from the Capitol building than the National Old Line Building, had been mentioned in discussions about solutions to space problems.

Bumpers recently asked the heads of the 13 major executive departments to survey the agencies under their command to determine how much space was needed.

Gene Kelley, executive secretary to Bumpers, said all of the reports indicated a need for more space, substantially more in several cases.

The State Employment Security Division, for example, is taking over the family assistance programs previously conducted out of the Welfare Department offices.

The acquisition of that function means the ESD likely will need 100,000 square feet of office space, roughly 65,000 more than is available in the ESD building.

Another factor in the space problem is the desire by Bumpers and the department heads to draw into a single area the various agencies under each department.

York pointed out, for example, that his department, by absorbing other functions under Act 38, the reorganization law, had six separate staff operations in six office buildings in two counties.

That, he said, is the most difficult problem he is facing. The department needs about 8,500 square feet of floor space, which is the amount the scattered branches have in use, but the space is needed in one central location so the operations can be brought to one place, York said.

"So many cabinet heads (department heads) believe it is imperative that for reorganization to work successfully they need to bring their agencies under one roof," Kelley said.

He said that the replies from department heads indicated that the space problems of the state could be solved by the use of a building about the size of the National Old Line Building.

That building has about 140,000 square feet of space, of which about 100,000 could be used as office space. Movable walls within the building would make conversion to state needs a relatively simple matter.

Bryant said that if the National Old Line Building figured in state plans, he believed the state also should acquire a section of land across Capitol Avenue from National Old Line. Such a purchase should be made from an aesthetic standpoint to protect the front view of the Capitol, Bryant said.

Kelley concurred in Bryant's view that state interests would be served through the purchase of the property flanking both the Capitol and the National Old Line Building.

Even if the building were not for sale, the state could, under authority given to the Public Housing Authority, exercise the right of eminent domain, condemn the property and then purchase it. However, some officials said such a course might not be wise since the state could pay more in the long run through that alternative than would be involved in simply trying to purchase some other building.

The authority is also given authority to issue revenue bonds to finance the construction or purchase of office buildings.

Bryant said the alternative of constructing an office building had the shortcoming of the time that would lapse before construction would be completed and the building ready for use. He said the process would take about two years.

He also said that it was "impossible" that, through legislative action, about $550,000 under the control of the Revenue Building Commission could be granted to the authority for development—by construction, purchase or whatever — of office space for the state.

That money was reserved for construction of a third floor on the Justice Building, but bids received for the project exceeded the funds available to pay for the construction. The money is not needed to pay off the revenue bonds, Bryant said.

"We're doing very well on the bonds," he said. "They run about $80,000 a year and we'll be doubling payments to $160,000 annually before long."

Renovation of the Capitol Hill Apartments building, being converted for state offices since its purchase several years ago, continues with the fifth and sixth floors to be ready for occupancy this fall, Bryant said.

He said a contract will be let Sept. 1 for work on the seventh floor, which is the top floor.

Work also is 90 per cent complete on a new state office building located near the Capitol on Markham Street. Bryant said some agencies may be able to move into that building in August.

He said, however, that he saw little need to assign office space in either building with any permanence until the administration settles on a plan for consolidating agencies under each department and determining how each department could utilize the available space.

GOP May Challenge Re-Districting

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Pulaski County Republican Committee is contemplating filing a lawsuit to challenge the reapportionment plan for the state legislature drawn by the state Board of Apportionment.

In a meeting Tuesday night, the committee voted to confer with lawyers to determine if there was sufficient legal grounds for a lawsuit. Committee members expressed opposition to the five multimember House districts for Pulaski County drawn by the board.

W. T. Kelly, committee chairman, said Republicans would stand a better chance of being elected if the county had been divided into single-member districts.

Mortar Fire Exchange in Middle East

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Israeli and Syrian gunners exchanged mortar fire across the cease-fire line on the occupied Golan Heights for the first time in more than a year, the Israeli military command reported today.

The hour-long battle Tuesday was at the southern end of the Golan plateau where the Israeli, Syrian and Jordanian frontiers converge, a spokesman in Tel Aviv said. There were no Israeli casualties, he added.

U.S. Asst. Secretary of State Joseph J. Sisco was en route to meet with Israeli leaders amid signs of a new U.S. approach to the Israeli-Egyptian power balance. His mission was to persuade the government of Premier Golda Meir to give way enough to make possible stop-gap agreement with Egypt that would get the Suez Canal open. The Israelis also hope for an affirmative answer to their requests for more weapons, especially Phantom fighter bombers, which Mrs. Meir insists are needed to balance the flow of new Soviet arms into Egypt. But reports from Washington indicated they would be disappointed unless they gave ground on their demands for a Suez agreement.

Sources in New York said Soviet Ambassador Jacob A. Malik, at the 70th meeting Tuesday of the Big Four U.N. ambassadors on the Middle East, called Sisco's trip "American meddling," while U.S. Ambassador George Bush insisted it was an effort to promote an Arab-Israeli settlement.

Berrigans Are Refused Parole

By MARK BROWN
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Board of Parole has decided the brothers Berrigan, antiwar Roman Catholic priests, must remain in the Federal Correctional Institution at Danbury, Conn., for at least another 16 months.

Philip, 47, and Daniel, 49, were refused parole Wednesday.

The board decreed Daniel must serve out the rest of his three-year sentence for destruction of draft records at Catonsville, Md., in 1968. With time off for good behavior, he could be released Nov. 23, 1972.

Philip Berrigan, accused of plotting to kidnap presidential adviser Henry A. Kissinger as part of escalating antiwar activity, will be reheard by the board in January 1973. He is serving concurrent sentences that could keep him in prison until September of 1975. Philip's sentences stem from convictions for destruction of draft records at Catonsville and Baltimore in 1967.

Parole Board Chairman George J. Reed said the decision was made "after full review of both cases." The board's session took place behind closed doors and Reed offered no explanation of its decision.

A probable factor in the decision was the indictments accusing Philip of masterminding the alleged Kissinger kidnap plot from his cell at the federal prison in Lewisburg, Pa. The brothers were both taken to Danbury last August after Daniel, who eluded FBI agents for four months after jumping bond, was captured at the home of friends on Block Island, R.I.

Philip Berrigan started serving the six-year sentence he received on the Baltimore conviction in July of 1968, but was let out on appeal in December of that year. He remained out on bond and writes for more than a year.

He was scheduled to report to federal authorities April 9, 1970, but both he and Daniel went underground.

Philip was captured by FBI agents 12 days later, but Daniel was a fugitive for more than four months.

Among the offenses alleged in the Kissinger kidnap indictment were infractions of prison rules by Philip in smuggling letters out of Lewisburg. At the same time, he sent word through friends that he was being mistreated.

Cambodian Village Now a Fortress

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
KROU, KOU, Cambodia (AP) — The stretch of the Phnom Penh-Saigon highway that runs through the village of Krou Kou is a super fortress.

Giant artillery guns ring the homes of the villagers. Armored vehicles rumble by. Whirling helicopters land in yards.

"It's hard to sleep," complains Lay Sokhom, a 37-year-old schoolteacher.

War is a game to the children.

At the thunder of 155mm artillery guns, the children hold fingers to their ears. The smaller ones, half naked, cry.

The village of Krou Kou, just inside Cambodia, is a forward command post for the South Vietnamese army operating along Highway 1 some 60 miles northwest of Saigon.

The soldiers bivouac in the houses. They cook chickens and rice.

Prum Sath, 40-year-old father of five children, says he doesn't like the South Vietnamese.

"It is very hard to live with them," he says. "They take things and don't pay."

Prum Sath says they took his house to use as an army post. He moved in with Lay Sokhom and his six children down the road, but the lower floor is strung with hammocks of the soldiers. The next-door neighbor is a battery of 155mm howitzers.

"I am not rich enough to protest," says Prum Sath.

In another village off the highway, South Vietnamese medics treat ailing Cambodians. They are medical cases rather than war casualties. It is part of the South Vietnamese civic action program.

SAVE MONEY EVERY DAY AT SAFEMWAY DISCOUNT

DON'T WORRY... WE WON'T TAKE AWAY YOUR TOP VALUE STAMPS!

We know how to give our customers...

Finest quality food at low competitive prices
plus trading stamps...Top Value Stamps
...in other words, total value!

Other stores try, then somehow, something starts to give...

They raise prices
or lower quality or cut back on service or take away trading stamps.

A pity.

Because our secret is no secret at all.
It's simply sound business sense. We give you everything you want...including
Top Value Stamps...for total value.

Aren't you glad?

Some stores just never get the hang of it. Too bad.
